ABOUT THIS WINERY

Brouwerij F. Boon is one of the major Belgian producers of lambics and gueuzes, recognized for the consistency and exceptional quality of its products. He actively participated in the survival and revival of the style in the last third of the last century and still collaborates regularly with the community of brewers and blenders to promote Belgian know-how in this area.

TASTING NOTES

The taste of each VAT number is unique. It depends on the specific oak barrel the Lambic beer matured in, the maturation period inside the barrel and the secondary fermentation period inside the bottle.

PRODUCT NOTES

Oude Geuze Boon is made from Lambic beers from different oak barrels, but the VAT Monoblend is predominantly made with old Lambic from the same barrel. This results in a taste experience that is as unique as the barrel itself.

Each Monoblend is identified with the combination of the word 'VAT' and a number. This code is very easy to explain, as it always refers to the number of the Boon Brewery oak barrel or foeder. 90% of the Monoblend is old Lambic from that specific barrel. For example, th...
